

MR. GOULD'S LATEST SCHEME

To Unify the Richmond Terminal, Missouri Pacific and Gould Roads.

A VANDERBILT YACHT QUARANTINED.

Why the Postoffice Department Refused to Receive Italian Papers—Immigrations and Deaths.

NEW YORK BUREAU.

Chicago special says: Mr. Gould's non-attendance at the Railway Advisory Board meeting was due to the fact that he is preparing a scheme to unify the interests of the Richmond Terminal, Missouri Pacific and Gould roads generally; that in pursuance of this plan, Missouri Pacific is working for tonnage, regardless of rates, in order to secure the adjustment of a big percentage in the proposed pool of the Southwestern roads.

HALF A MILLION DONATION.

The Rev. James McMahon, pastor of St. Andrew's church, in City Hall Place, today gave to the Roman Catholic University at Washington, D. C., real estate to the value of over $500,000. The property is at Long Branch and in the city. The deeds of the New York lands have been recorded.

WHY THEY ARE RETURNED.

A cable dispatch from Rome stated today that the postmaster of New York had refused to permit a number of Italian newspapers to be circulated, and had returned them to the Italian publishers, with a statement that entry into the United States was forbidden.

IMMIGRATION AND DEATHS.

The "Majestic" today landed 964 steerage passengers. Most of them were German immigrants. The "Giulia" from Naples, had 322 immigrants, mostly Italian.

A VANDERBILT YACHT QUARANTINED.

W. K. Vanderbilt's steam yacht Alva from the Mediterranean, arrived at quarantine with Hugh Halpin, suffering from smallpox.

PERMITTED TO LEAVE.

The men were furnished with cloth, straw and canvas caps, walking, tan and canvas shoes, slippers, collars and black silk scarves.

BOOTH'S FINANCIAL CONDITION.

So far as money is concerned Edwin Booth has enough to keep him in comfort the rest of his life. He was able to give $100,000 to the New York Club, and it is reported that he has invested in one of the largest insurance companies a sum of money which insures to him an annuity of $10,000 a year for life.

THE LARGEST PLATE COLLECTION EVER TAKEN UP.

At one time in the case of the collector of the Grandfield N. J. was that received at the Cross-street Presbyterian church recently.

THE VANDERBILT FLEET.

The English steam-yacht Conqueror has been purchased by Mr. Frederick W. Vanderbilt, who will bring her over here early in June.

WALL-STREET ECHOES.

President Samuel Thomas of the New Albany road, referring to the report about changes in the management, says: "I have no objection to resigning the presidency of the road. I am now actively engaged in reforming the management and trying to bring about better results in its operations."

THAT "NICE OF OLD HICKORY."

She victimizes the Danville People and Proves to Be a Fraud.

THE "NICE OF OLD HICKORY" victimized Mr. McMahon, the proprietor of the Windsor House, and hadly two other men when she appointed guardians for the children.

She also got away with one of Danville's most sagacious lawyers, beating him out of a good deal of legal work and a $20 loan.

Mr. McMahon's most prominent real estate owners, who have kept a sharp eye on the city's finances, then had a good deal of property for sale and Mrs. Davidson pulled the wool over his eyes and made him think she was a large purchaser of real estate for the children. The victim's livery bill, contracted in driving the "niece of Old Hickory" around to look at his vacant lots, amounted to twenty old dollars. Mrs. Davidson was a cheater of tobacco, and, it is said, she struck this victim for a box of plug.

She finally bought the Windsor House, ran it for a month, got in debt to all the butchers, all her boarders, and all her hired help, and then skipped the town by the light of the moon, never paying Mr. McMahon or any other creditor a cent.

And now the "niece of Old Hickory" has actually invaded the White House and victimized the grandson of the great William Henry Harrison.

Norfolk had better keep a weather eye on the crafty niece.—Lynchburg News.
